EARL GILES

THE MAN, THE MYTH,
The Legend!

Born in 1888, Earl Giles is the great-grandfather of our co-founder Jeff Erkkila. As well as being a pilot, Earl owned and operated multiple businesses across Minnesota, including apothecaries, pharmacies and candy stores.

A bold opponent of Prohibition, Earl would fly his float plane across the northern US, delivering bootlegged booze disguised as medicine in apothecary bottles, to keep the good times rolling. Today, we embrace that same spirit of adventure, through great hospitality, delicious food and our pioneering approach to making great tasting drinks; all produced here, in-house, at our one-of-a-kind Earl Giles Drinks Emporium.

Like Earl, we aim to keep the good times rolling whether you want classic cocktails, award winning THC infused beverages or curated zero proof drinks, we've got you covered. Or as we like to say....
